FOR SALE.—Canary singers. Mrs. F. H. Adams.

R. J. Walker, under sheriff, was in the city last Tuesday.

Mr. M. Salzman was a business visitor at Flagstaff last Tuesday.

Henry T. Ashurst was a business visitor to Seligman on Wednesday.

Dr. Lorenz, a famous German specialist, was a visitor at the Canyon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Nagiller, of Rhoades, spent Sunday and Monday in the city.

Phelan's for turkeys, ducks, chickens and geese. Oysters and celery for Thanksgiving.

Mr. W. A. Thomas, of Rhoades, was a caller the first of the week and had his name placed on our subscription books.

P. C. Bicknell has severed his connection with the Prescott Prospect, on which paper he has been employed for the past year.

Leave your orders at Phelan's for poultry for Thanksgiving.

W. W. Bass is still hustling out Mystic Springs way, getting up new buildings for the accommodation of guests at that great scenic resort.

If you want a cheap turkey patronize the turkey shoot November 27th.

H. L. Aphold and Johnny Doyle went out a few miles north of town last Sunday and secured an elegant specimen of deer, which weighed in the neighborhood of 250 pounds.

State Senator A. D. Ogborn of Indiana, who is official stenographer to the senate statehood committee, spent a few hours on Sunday with his nephew, F. W. Smith, and family.

If you haven't any gun I will furnish you one on Thanksgiving Day to shoot turkeys.

G. W. MARTIN.

Beach & Bowers' minstrel company that is to be here, under canvas, Nov. 26, is bright and fresh, and, above all, new, with nothing that can offend, and is made up of as good minstrel artists as are to be found.

Mr. A. F. Polson and Mesdames Fanshler and Carney returned last Sunday from their trip to northern California in quest of timber land. They were successful, as were the rest of the party, some of whom will return later.

Thanksgiving Nov. 27. Leave your orders at Phelan's for everything you need to complete your dinner.

The members of Beach & Bowers' show, under canvas, are all first-class minstrels and fun-makers. Good judgment has been used in the selection of each individual of the aggregation, which is one of the best known in the United States.

Topographer F. E. Mathes has completed his work at the Grand Canyon, so far as the appropriation made by congress would allow. Messrs Douglas and Dunnington, of the topographic department, spent the first of the week at the Canyon and on Tuesday, with Mr. Mathes, left for Prescott. It is understood that the work will be resumed soon and carried as far west as Bass' camp on the Canyon.

Martin will have turkeys, ducks, geese and chickens in stock for Thanksgiving. Leave your orders and they will be delivered at your homes.

Judge N. G. Layton, superintendent of public instruction, arrived in Phoenix yesterday from his home in Coconino county. Judge Layton says that while the election did not go exactly to suit him he is as well satisfied as possible.—Arizona Gazette.

A change in the Canyon train's time for leaving Williams has been made commencing last Tuesday. The train now leaves here at 2:30 p. m., arriving at the Canyon in time to give the passengers a glimpse of the great gorge in the evening, returning at noon the next day.

Remember the turkey shoot on Thanksgiving Day by G. W. Martin.

Mr. Ellery Knowles, of Deadwood, S. D., visited the News office last Saturday. Mr. Knowles has been with a company of surveyors for the past two months doing government work in this county, and left Saturday night for his home to resume his duties as a clerk in the Deadwood postoffice.

Ed. Kelleher, formerly sawyer with the lumber company here, who has recently been employed near Madera, Cal., by the Sugar Pine Co., came in Tuesday morning from San Francisco for a few days' visit, as he said to get a breath of pure mountain air. Mike Michaelson, a former Williams boy, is located at Sugar Pine mill and is doing well, Ed. says.

G. W. Martin will have all kinds of poultry for Thanksgiving.

At the session of the Masonic grand lodge in Phoenix, last week, they elected the following grand officers: F. M. Zook grand master, J. S. Cromb deputy grand master, George Shand grand senior warden, E. S. Miller grand junior warden, J. M. Ormsby grand treasurer, Geo. J. Roskrue, grand secretary. E. S. Miller, of Flagstaff, was also elected worthy grand patron of the O. E. S.

There has been considerable newspaper talk recently to the effect that John T. McCarty had worked up a scheme to rob an insurance company, and that he is not dead, but is at present in Canada. It will be remembered that McCarty was supposed to have been killed by a bear in the Mogollon mountains. His wife is now living on a ranch in Pima county, having gone to that county after the funeral in Phoenix, which was largely attended. The Enterprise reporter, after thorough investigation, cannot find any evidence to justify the talk of fraud. It is simply sensationalism, and the logical deduction is that McCarty is really dead, and that the detectives of the insurance companies are at fault. At best, they seem to be basing their suspicion of fraud on the fact that they did not find two gold teeth in the jaw of the dead man.—Phoenix Enterprise.

Some years ago while at Martinsburg, W. Va., I was taken with cholera morbus, which was followed by diarrhoea. The doctor's medicine did me no good. I was advised to get a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I did, and it cured me sound and well. G. A. Morris, Embreville, Pa. Sold by the Williams Drug Co.

Notice to Teachers.

An examination of applicants for teachers' territorial certificates will be held at Flagstaff, Coconino county, on Monday and Tuesday, December 1st and 2nd, 1902. Sessions each day from 9 to 12 a. m., and from 1 to 4 p. m.

HARRISON CONRAD,
County School Supt.

G. W. Martin will have a big turkey shoot November 27th.

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I can recommend it with utmost confidence. It has done good work for me and will do the same for others. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully, yours for health, Ralph S. Meyers, 64 Thirtieth street, Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by the Williams Drug Co.
