On Trip Down Rio Verde in Sail Boats.

A correspondent writing from Jerome under date of May 21, says:

The boats, which arrived Friday evening, were taken down to the river Saturday and this morning (Sunday) at 7 o'clock, the start was made down the Verde for Phoenix. There will be two men in a boat, Messrs. Miller and Cox in one, and Hooker and Smith in the other. Yesterday morning Mr. Armstrong secured another boat at Camp Verde, and he joined the crowd and went alone in his boat. The boats are of iron, and are painted a brown color, with canvas seats, which are adjustable. They are what would be termed shooting boats. Fishing tackle and guns and ammunition will be taken along, and the sailors expect to have a fine outing.
