

127

Additional Requested Citations for Fuller Powerpoint

1. 298; 1085-7. Streamboats up to Dome
Littlefield Report, 1998 (Exhibit 1, part 19)
Littlefield Testimony, 2005, Transcript @ p. 154:6
Littlefield Report, 2005 (Exhibit 12, p. 120)
Newspaper accounts. AZ Sentinel 1-25-1879. "Uncle Sam" (Exhibit X004, part 15)
2. 330-1. Pattie description of Gila.
SLIDE 80 - James Ohio Pattie (1825, Jan-Mar)
 - a. All Segments: "beautiful, running between banks with tall cottonwoods & willows...plenty of beaver" (Tellman, Arizona's Changing Rivers (Exhibit 1, part 18), citing Corle, The Gila, p. 116-119)
 - b. Segment 7: "200 yds wide" (Man and Wildlife in Arizona, Goode P. Davis, Jr., 1982, p. 8, 19-20 (Exhibit X004, part 3))
 - c. Segment 6: "too deep to ford"
 - i. Built a canoe to trap both sides of river (Exhibit X004, p. 21)
3. 331-2. Kearny Expedition quote.
Kearny Expedition (1846) – Mapping, Roads
Segment 7:
"80 yds wide...3 ft deep...rapid" (Exhibit X004, Part3, 29)
Lt. Emory (1846): "Navigable as far as Pima Villages (Segment 6)...possibly with small boats at all stages" (Littlefield, 2004, Exhibit 12, p. 108)
Lt. Emory (1853): "Not navigable...a never failing stream...large volume of flow...large fish" (Exhibit 12, p. 108)
Turner: "100-150 yds wide...average depth of 4 ft...deep enough for a steamboat" (Exhibit X004, part 3, p. 29; Exhibit 12, p. 107)
Segment 1:
Johnson: "30 ft wide, 1 ft. deep on the shallows, pebbly bed, fringed with trees." (Exhibit X004, part 3, p. 27)
4. 332. Source for quote on SLIDE 83.
Forty-Niners
Segment 6:
"deep, narrow & rapid stream" (Exhibit 1, part 18, p. 99)
"whole stream drawn off for irrigation" (Exhibit X004, part 3, p 44)
August, 1849 "deep, narrow, rapid, muddy, tall cottonwoods" (Exhibit X004, part 3, p 48)
Segment 1:
"12 yds wide, 1.5 ft deep...abounds in trout" (Exhibit X004, part 3, p 47)
5. 334-5. Source for Gila River in Duncan Valley in SLIDE 91 (ASLD Report for Upper Gila River, Exhibit 2, p. B-17; AZ Pioneers Historical Society, Tucson, #59101)
6. 486. Escalante description. SLIDE 79
de Escalante (Nov, 1697)
Segment 6
River too deep to ford, crossed by swimming (ASLD Report for Gila River, 2005, Exhibit 4, p. IV-1)
de Anza (1775)
Segment 6, 7 & 8
"dry...half way up legs...reaching horses' shoulders...very deep...flowing slowly" (ASLD Report for Gila River, 2005, Exhibit 4, p. IV-1)