Mining notices for sale at this office.

Ben Crawford, Deputy U. S. Collector of Internal Revenues, spent Thursday in town on business.

Councilman Nugent came in on Thursday morning's express from Phoenix and returned the same evening accompanied by Miss Ida Fredley and Miss Juana Martinez. The young ladies will visit the Capital City for a week and during their stay will attend the several dances and the railroad celebration in that city next week.

Mrs. Dunne left for Phoenix Tuesday on a visit to her son William.

Messrs. Gandolfo, Levy, Purdy and Dorrington will leave this evening for Phoenix to attend the railroad blow-out there next week.

Louis Burgess has purchased the interests of John Guttinger in the White Labor Laundry.

J. W. Evans and Amos Adams, arrived here last Sunday from Morenci, Ariz., after a two months voyage down the Gila river. In another column will be found an interesting communication giving a description of their trip down the above named river.

Ramon Ochoa, a miner, left for Harqua Hala, Sunday.

Nels Monson, the wood contractor of the Golden Gross mine at Hedges, spent a couple of days in Yuma this week. Nelson is like the balance of the boys of that flourishing camp—a jolly good fellow.

Frank Redondo is the latest re-
