Maricopa's "Members."

The Prescott Courier, in a rapid sketch of the members of the legislature, has the following to say of those from Maricopa:

HOUSE. Maricopa county will be represented by the Hon. DeForset Porter. a staunch Republican and family man, about 47 years of age, active and progressive. Has served as Judge of the 2d Judicial District of Arizona for ten years, was the Republican nominee for Delegate to Congress two years ago against Granville Oury and was defeated by his party knifing him. He has for the past year been Mayor of Phoenix Mr. Porter was forced by the tax-payers of his county to accept the position to which they elected him, knowing his stability and ardent sympathies for the section in which he resides. He will be the equal if not the peer of the most brilliant member of the house. The other gentleman who represents Maricopa county is the Hon. J. S. Almstrong, a Democrat in politics and about 30 years of age. He is postmaster at Tempe and bus iness manager of Hayden's mills.

COUNCIL. Maricopa county sends to the council the Hon R. B. Todd. He is a Democrat, and although a new comer to the Territory, he is spoker of by all who know him as a man of unusual ability and a worthy gentleman. Mr. Podd is superintens dent of the Vulture mine, where he has resided since his advent to the "sun kissed land."

Dr. Levi E. George, of Tucson, reports some old people living in northern Arizona. He and a party found a tribe known as the Wakoyas on the Colorado river in a small valley shut in by high ranges and maintaining their independence of all other tribes. Here he found individuals who are said to be eighty one hundred and ten, one hundred and seventy-five and one woman one hundred and eighty-two years old. The doctor, who claims to have seen much of the world, be lieves that these claims are true and arches from the appearance of the individuals and from their method of reckoning. He believes the spot where they live, shutting them out from all other tribes and healthfulness of the place to be the principal cause of this great iongevity.
