Fatal Row Between Editors

VICKSBURG, March 23 .- E. Hardenstine, editor of a weekly paper, and John G. Cashman, editor of the Evening Post, have been at outs regarding the New Orleans lynching. This afternoon Cashman was attacked by Hardenstine on the street, and, drawing a revolver, killed Hardenstine. The latter was found to be unarmed, Cashman's friends assert that Hardenstine made dire threats and that the killing was

THE STANFORD UNIVERSITY.

An Indiana Professor Chosen for Its First · President.

Indianapolis, March 23.-A special from Bloomington, Indiana, says: Dr. Davis S. Jordan, president of the Indiana university for the last seven year, with a residence.

Senator Leland Stanford and wife arrived in this city Saturday evening and remained until today, when he started for Chicago, where he will take his pri-vate car for the west. Sunday morning he sent for Dr. Jordan and met him in the National Hotel, when, without any explanation, he offered him the presidency. The doctor took the matter under consideration until this morning, when he notified him of his acceptance.

The term of office will begin next September. Dr. Jordan is to leave for the west as soon as the present college year is completed.

Dr. Jordan has been president of the Indiana University for the past seven years and at the time of his election was the youngest president in the country. He is a graduate of Cornell in 1872, and is an alumnus member of the Board of Trustees. He is 40 years old, a native of New York and his first college work was done at Lombard College, Gales-burg, Ill. He then went to Butler University. He has the largest private col-lection of fishes in the world and his books are a standard on ichthyology, as are also his botanical writings.

AN UNWILLING WITNESS.

Theodore Havemeyer Testifying Before the Sugar Trust Committee.

NEW YORK, March 23. - Theodore Havemeyer was before the State Senate Committee investigating the sugar trust again today.

When asked how the so-called trust was formed, witness said that in 1883, when his Brooklyn factory was burned, he did not think it safe to rebuild in this country, in view of possible changes in the tariff. After some consideration, however, he did rebuild at a cost of $7,000,000 in eighteen months. They did not capitalize the company at its full value. This would have placed them at disadvantage as to competitors, had they been forced to pay taxes thereon. Therefore the capital was put at

on. Therefore the capital was put at half a million. Finally his brother and himself decided to submit their interest and stock to the trustees of the Sugar Refiners' Company and received therefor a certain amount of Sugar Refiners' certificates of stock. He re-fused to state the amount and when asked the value of the plant said he could not tell. Besides the plant and its actual value, it represented the ex-perience of generations and private patent processes which could not be Adjourned until Saturday.

A DESPERATE CROOK.

Resists the Officers and Receives a Pistol Bullet.

Gilboy, Cal., March 23.- The burglar who shot Fisher early this morning has ton belt. been traced by Marshal Gardner to the road to Madrone. Information was obtained there that he had gone to the Eighteen-mile house.

Gardner and a deputy followed him, overtook him and ordered him to throw up his hands. Instead of doing so he reached for a pistol, when the officers fired and the burglar fell. While on the ground he drew a pistol and fired twice at the officers, but neither bullet took effect. The wound was not dan-gerous. He was returned to town and will be arraigned tomorrow.

A Well-known Californian Dead.

Los Angeles, March 23 .- Doctor Andrew McFarland, the first Republican Coroner of this city, and a resident of California since 1874, died today. He was a veteran of the late civil war, served till its close, and served in the papal army in Italy. He belonged to the Masons, Odd Fellows and Ancient Order of United Workmen.

A Self Constituted Judge.

WINSTED, Conn., March 23 .- It has been customary for years for the Governor's fast day proclamation to be read in all churches the Sunday preceding that day. Yesterday none of the min-isters read it, and today explained that they had not received it from Town Clerk Wentworth. The latter, who is a Democrat, explains that he does not recognize Bulkiey as governor, therefore, pigeon-hole the proclamation.

A Grand College of Cooks.

CHICAGO, March 23 .- The Grand College of Epicurean Cosmopolitan Cooks and Pastry Association held its first convention today in this city. Chef Phillips, formerly of the Auditorium Hotel, is director general of the organi-zation, which has over 2500 members. Among the cities represented today were Denver, Omaha, St. Paul, Minnea polis, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Detroit, Cleveland and New York. The object of the association is the elevation of their profession.

Suicide of a Negro Murderer.

PURBLO, Col., March 23.—Ben Grant, a negro, wanted in Topeka for wife murdsr, was located here today. When the Sheriff attempted to arrest him Grant fled. A large crowd joined in the pur-suit and the negro put a bullet through his own head.

Killed in Bevenge.

BASTROP, Tex., March 23.-Bob Jenkins and his father-in-law, Henry Chambers, were found dead near here this morning. They were concerned in the Smith killing last fall and the murder is probably revenge by Smith's triends.

Hunting the Musk Ox.

WINNEPEG, March 23 .- W. W. Pike, an English explorer, has returned from the Arctic region, where he has been for two years. His party underwent terrible suffering in their journey. The weather was terribly cold. He was fairly successful in his hunting, bring-ing the skins of over sixty musk oxen.

Striking Against a Yardmaster.

CHICAGO, March 23 .- Over one hun dren switchmen, comprising the entire yard force of the Chicago & Northwest- At California Prices ern road in this city, went out on a strike today, the result of bad feeling against Yardmaster McNerny. After the men had been idle a half an hour, the yardmaster tendered his resignation and the strikers went back to work,

A Flood Reminiscence.

In the case of J. L. Gant vs. N. A. De-Connick, on trial in Justice Huson's Court yesterday, the jury rendered a Indiana university for the last seven years, has been offered the presidency of the famous Leland Stanford Jr. University, at Palo Alto, California, and has accepted. The salary is $10,000 per DeConnick's saloon near the depot and charged him $50 for the same. DeCon-nick, thinking the price exorbitant, refused to pay it, when Gant began suit with the above result. Attorneys for defendant give notice of appeal to the District Court.

The following suits were filed in the office of the Clerk of the District Court yesterday: M. Lewis and Sol Lewis vs. J. W. Blankenship, Tax Collector; Kales & Hoadley vs. J. W. Blankenship, Tax Collector; Mary J. and A. C. Baker vs. J. W. Blankenship, Tax Collector; The National Bank of Arizona vs. J. W. Blankenship, Tax Collector.
