

253

ZOOM VERSION

George Greenwald, head carpenter at the Roosevelt dam, was swept over the dam and drowned in a whirlpool below. The victim of the accident was engaged in floating a raft of lumber down the stream, the river being higher than usual.

Sentence Sermons

From the Chicago News.

Conduct is simply character vitalized.

A good lover is sure to be a first-class hater.

He rejects happiness who refuses all sacrifice.

The Father never drove any into the far country.

You cannot find a martyr by looking into the mirror.

To sow selfishness is certainly to reap sorrow.

It is hard to believe in the goodness of the grouch.

The most wasteful thing in the world is selfish economy.

A hot scolding from the minister is the quickest way to cool any meeting.

The soul is that which sees the supreme and the sublime.

The church is almost sure to have paralysis following a fit of dogma.

Your use of your leisure often determines the usefulness of your life.

He can never be more than half educated who is not educated at heart.

The greater the opportunity the less likely it is to have an advance agent.

There must be something queer about any faith that needs perpetual defending.

Great Britain has agreed to pay $100,000 to Bandit Raisuli for the release of Sir Henry MacLane. When he tires of this kind of larceny Raisuli can make plenty of money peddling fruit trees and tomato plants.

The Tucson Citizen says:—The calendar year, just closing, has been one of gratifying progress to the Arizona School of Mines, and to the whole University of Arizona, of which it has been an integral and important part ever since the opening of the institution in 1891. The income has been increased by $7,000 from the United States government for the next fiscal year, the income will then be about $98,000. The faculty has been enlarged by the addition of three men in newly created positions. On the student side, similarly gratifying evidences of the appreciation of the opportunities offered by the University are found in the increased registration—it is now 220—which is already greater than the total for the whole college year ending last June.

Once more Arizona will be able to congratulate herself on the wisdom of the men who shaped the early educational policy of the territory, and who united in one institution all the various schools and departments—letters, science, agriculture, mining, and engineering, in place of several weak, struggling, warring institutions, there is one, already strong and yearly growing stronger to serve the needs of the territory.

One of the large German steamship companies will spend $8,250,000 on two trans-Atlantic liners intended to be the finest and fastest on the ocean. The great salt water tournament continues and is likely to go on indefinitely.

Doings In the District Court

MONDAY, FEB. 17

The United States grand jury completed its labors this afternoon and was discharged. They brought in another report and returned three indictments against Eben L. Crowell, charging the embezzlement of $1,500, alleged to have been taken while employed as the cashier of customs at the Port of Nogales. The sensational developments that were promised have so far failed to materialize.

A number of back tax cases were decided in court today in favor of the territory.

The cases of E. J. Levery et al v. J. L. Sullivan, involving the question of title to mining property in the Paradise district, were dismissed on motion of the plaintiffs.

The case of E. J. Levery et al v. J. L. Sullivan, involving the question of title to mining property in the Paradise district, were dismissed on motion of the plaintiffs.

To Rectify an Erroneous Assertion

Among the many embarrassments of life journalistic, there is none that brings to the editorial heart such pangs of regret as the consciousness that we have erred in our statements in such a manner as to reflect on our fellowman, or have said that which causes injury or shame to be his share.

A recent issue of the Prospector is authority for the statement that divorces proceedings had been begun by the wife of C. M. Henkel, a well known and respected Douglas merchant. In this the Prospector was in error, and we deem it but fitting that we relieve both Mr. and Mrs. Henkel from the stigma of such report and at the same time explain the strange vagary of fate whereby we did ourselves fully as much wrong as we did Mr. Henkel.

Briefly, Mrs. Henkel has not brought suit against her husband for divorce, nor is any such action on her part contemplated.

The erroneous impression, gleaned from the records of the office of the district court, was due to a confusion of the parties named in cases which have recently come up from Douglas, the similarity of parents engaged in by each, being responsible for the mistake, and proved too much for the analytical proficiency of our reporter, with the result that Mr. Henkel came in for participation in all the cases, besides the reference to bankruptcy proceedings involved.

We know personally of the high respect in which Mr. Henkel is held by those who enjoy his acquaintance and we are told that his home life is one that makes him the envy of his closest friends. Therefore does the Prospector regret sincerely that its various misfortune in failing to line up the facts has brought Mr. and Mrs. Henkel into the limelight of notoriety not at all deserved. We apologize, and further, we congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Henkel on the fact that, although business reverses have claimed a share of their worldly joy, the loss of financial prestige has not and cannot rend asunder those ties wherein lie all the real joys of this earth.

Flagstaff Council Acted Too Hastily

When some of the members of the town council of Flagstaff instructed the city attorney there to institute against the famous Flagstaff astronomer, Prof. Percival Lowell, for the possession of certain lands surrounding the Flagstaff observatory site, which it was claimed Prof. Lowell had unlawfully taken up, they evidently did not represent the Flagstaff citizens as a whole, or even as a majority.

This is evidenced by the joint action just taken by the board of trade of Flagstaff and the citizens, at a mass meeting held for that purpose, it was decided to write Mr. Lowell an explanatory letter, and at the same time take a sharp line at the members of the town council.

To Rectify an Erroneous Assertion

Among the many embarrassments of life journalistic, there is none that brings to the editorial heart such pangs of regret as the consciousness that we have erred in our statements in such a manner as to reflect on our fellowman, or have said that which causes injury or shame to be his share.

A recent issue of the Prospector is authority for the statement that divorces proceedings had been begun by the wife of C. M. Henkel, a well known and respected Douglas merchant. In this the Prospector was in error, and we deem it but fitting that we relieve both Mr. and Mrs. Henkel from the stigma of such report and at the same time explain the strange vagary of fate whereby we did ourselves fully as much wrong as we did Mr. Henkel.

Briefly, Mrs. Henkel has not brought suit against her husband for divorce, nor is any such action on her part contemplated.

The erroneous impression, gleaned from the records of the office of the district court, was due to a confusion of the parties named in cases which have recently come up from Douglas, the similarity of parents engaged in by each, being responsible for the mistake, and proved too much for the analytical proficiency of our reporter, with the result that Mr. Henkel came in for participation in all the cases, besides the reference to bankruptcy proceedings involved.

We know personally of the high respect in which Mr. Henkel is held by those who enjoy his acquaintance and we are told that his home life is one that makes him the envy of his closest friends. Therefore does the Prospector regret sincerely that its various misfortune in failing to line up the facts has brought Mr. and Mrs. Henkel into the limelight of notoriety not at all deserved. We apologize, and further, we congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Henkel on the fact that, although business reverses have claimed a share of their worldly joy, the loss of financial prestige has not and cannot rend asunder those ties wherein lie all the real joys of this earth.

Arizona News and Comments

The Nogales round house force is compelled to handle sixteen engines every twenty four hours.

Good sized sums of money have been picked up on the public roads running out from Mesa and as there are no claimants the finders are somewhat mystified.

The ball featuring the opening of the Vance opera house, Mesa, last week, was a big success. Society people from all over central Arizona attended. The new play house was built at a cost of $75,000 and is said to be the largest opera house in the southwest.

New cabbages the first of these season, for that section, are on display in Mesa.

All efforts to locate relatives of George Richardson, the horseman, who recently died in Phoenix, have been futile and it has been decided to bury the body at the territorial capital.

Maricopa Democrats, according to republican newspapers of Phoenix, have decided to ask for a national committeeman or a delegate to the national convention to be held at Denver.

Douglas has been informed by the Mexican authorities that gambling is not to be tolerated in Agua Prieta, and the hopes of a number of Douglas sports are blasted.

Tucson, the actual geographical center of the Arizona banana belt, enjoyed a snow carnival the other day.

Peach trees are in bloom in some sections of the Salt river valley. Tombstone orchards have been in bloom a week or more.

Two hundred men are fishing work on the Parker bridge. The bridge will be completed and ready to carry trains by June 1.

No trace of the bag of diamonds lost by Mrs. Harvey Lee in Phoenix has been found by the officers of Maricopa county.

Tucson is figuring on building a fast race track. Several prominent horsemen of the territory are in the old pueblo consulting with local enthusiasts regarding the project.

Six hundred dollars per front foot has been offered and refused for Congress street property in Tucson. Congress is the principal business thoroughfare of that city.

Inquiries are quite numerous and Tucson is now hopeful that her long held up school bond issue will soon find a market.

Clifton boasts of a large bottling works.

The assessment roll has so greatly enlarged that the people of Graham county are looking for a big reduction in taxes the coming year.

W. S. Davis, who recently looked the Globe field over, has decided to start a large candy factory in Clifton.

The Southwest Lumber company has been formed at Benson.

William Dickson, a Prescott brick-layer, mixed with a couple of Chinese and was so badly beaten up with bottles and rocks that he will be confined to the hospital for a number of weeks.

A lion measuring nine feet from tip to tip has been killed in Yavapai county.

The Flagstaff Gem reports that Williams has nine cases of smallpox; that the town of Williams is under quarantine and that there is no visiting between the residents of Williams and Flagstaff on this account.

The Salvation Army is caring for many people in Douglas.

The boys of the Douglas Y. M. C. A. will go into summer camp at Miller's canyon on June 1. While enjoying the outing they will be under strict military discipline.

By a vote of 47 to 4 Florence has granted a company composed of local capitalists a franchise for an electric light and water plant. The same company will also put in an ice plant.

Sheriff James Lowry of Yavapai county has announced himself as a candidate for re-election. Lowry has made an exceptionally good officer and will make a strong race, according to Yavapai papers.

Arizona News and Comments

The Nogales round house force is compelled to handle sixteen engines every twenty four hours.

Good sized sums of money have been picked up on the public roads running out from Mesa and as there are no claimants the finders are somewhat mystified.

The ball featuring the opening of the Vance opera house, Mesa, last week, was a big success. Society people from all over central Arizona attended. The new play house was built at a cost of $75,000 and is said to be the largest opera house in the southwest.

New cabbages the first of these season, for that section, are on display in Mesa.

All efforts to locate relatives of George Richardson, the horseman, who recently died in Phoenix, have been futile and it has been decided to bury the body at the territorial capital.

Maricopa Democrats, according to republican newspapers of Phoenix, have decided to ask for a national committeeman or a delegate to the national convention to be held at Denver.

Douglas has been informed by the Mexican authorities that gambling is not to be tolerated in Agua Prieta, and the hopes of a number of Douglas sports are blasted.

Tucson, the actual geographical center of the Arizona banana belt, enjoyed a snow carnival the other day.

Peach trees are in bloom in some sections of the Salt river valley. Tombstone orchards have been in bloom a week or more.

Two hundred men are fishing work on the Parker bridge. The bridge will be completed and ready to carry trains by June 1.

No trace of the bag of diamonds lost by Mrs. Harvey Lee in Phoenix has been found by the officers of Maricopa county.

Tucson is figuring on building a fast race track. Several prominent horsemen of the territory are in the old pueblo consulting with local enthusiasts regarding the project.

Six hundred dollars per front foot has been offered and refused for Congress street property in Tucson. Congress is the principal business thoroughfare of that city.

Inquiries are quite numerous and Tucson is now hopeful that her long held up school bond issue will soon find a market.

Clifton boasts of a large bottling works.

The assessment roll has so greatly enlarged that the people of Graham county are looking for a big reduction in taxes the coming year.

W. S. Davis, who recently looked the Globe field over, has decided to start a large candy factory in Clifton.

The Southwest Lumber company has been formed at Benson.

William Dickson, a Prescott brick-layer, mixed with a couple of Chinese and was so badly beaten up with bottles and rocks that he will be confined to the hospital for a number of weeks.

A lion measuring nine feet from tip to tip has been killed in Yavapai county.

The Flagstaff Gem reports that Williams has nine cases of smallpox; that the town of Williams is under quarantine and that there is no visiting between the residents of Williams and Flagstaff on this account.

The Salvation Army is caring for many people in Douglas.

The boys of the Douglas Y. M. C. A. will go into summer camp at Miller's canyon on June 1. While enjoying the outing they will be under strict military discipline.

By a vote of 47 to 4 Florence has granted a company composed of local capitalists a franchise for an electric light and water plant. The same company will also put in an ice plant.

Sheriff James Lowry of Yavapai county has announced himself as a candidate for re-election. Lowry has made an exceptionally good officer and will make a strong race, according to Yavapai papers.

Arizona News and Comments

The Nogales round house force is compelled to handle sixteen engines every twenty four hours.

Good sized sums of money have been picked up on the public roads running out from Mesa and as there are no claimants the finders are somewhat mystified.

The ball featuring the opening of the Vance opera house, Mesa, last week, was a big success. Society people from all over central Arizona attended. The new play house was built at a cost of $75,000 and is said to be the largest opera house in the southwest.

New cabbages the first of these season, for that section, are on display in Mesa.

All efforts to locate relatives of George Richardson, the horseman, who recently died in Phoenix, have been futile and it has been decided to bury the body at the territorial capital.

Maricopa Democrats, according to republican newspapers of Phoenix, have decided to ask for a national committeeman or a delegate to the national convention to be held at Denver.

Douglas has been informed by the Mexican authorities that gambling is not to be tolerated in Agua Prieta, and the hopes of a number of Douglas sports are blasted.

Tucson, the actual geographical center of the Arizona banana belt, enjoyed a snow carnival the other day.

Peach trees are in bloom in some sections of the Salt river valley. Tombstone orchards have been in bloom a week or more.

Two hundred men are fishing work on the Parker bridge. The bridge will be completed and ready to carry trains by June 1.

No trace of the bag of diamonds lost by Mrs. Harvey Lee in Phoenix has been found by the officers of Maricopa county.

Tucson is figuring on building a fast race track. Several prominent horsemen of the territory are in the old pueblo consulting with local enthusiasts regarding the project.

Six hundred dollars per front foot has been offered and refused for Congress street property in Tucson. Congress is the principal business thoroughfare of that city.

Inquiries are quite numerous and Tucson is now hopeful that her long held up school bond issue will soon find a market.

Clifton boasts of a large bottling works.

The assessment roll has so greatly enlarged that the people of Graham county are looking for a big reduction in taxes the coming year.

W. S. Davis, who recently looked the Globe field over, has decided to start a large candy factory in Clifton.

The Southwest Lumber company has been formed at Benson.

William Dickson, a Prescott brick-layer, mixed with a couple of Chinese and was so badly beaten up with bottles and rocks that he will be confined to the hospital for a number of weeks.

A lion measuring nine feet from tip to tip has been killed in Yavapai county.

The Flagstaff Gem reports that Williams has nine cases of smallpox; that the town of Williams is under quarantine and that there is no visiting between the residents of Williams and Flagstaff on this account.

The Salvation Army is caring for many people in Douglas.

The boys of the Douglas Y. M. C. A. will go into summer camp at Miller's canyon on June 1. While enjoying the outing they will be under strict military discipline.

By a vote of 47 to 4 Florence has granted a company composed of local capitalists a franchise for an electric light and water plant. The same company will also put in an ice plant.

Sheriff James Lowry of Yavapai county has announced himself as a candidate for re-election. Lowry has made an exceptionally good officer and will make a strong race, according to Yavapai papers.

Breezy Items From Huachuca

Huachuca, Ariz., Feb. 19, 1908.

The first squadron of the Fifth U. S. cavalry, at Huachuca, will leave here about the first of September for Monterey, Calif., where the army maneuvers will be held in October.

And Yuss, the famous broncho buster, has been tendered a position with the 101st Wild West Show, now outfitting in Chihuahua for a tour of European countries.

Now, then, the county guardians have ceased paying bounty on John Wolf pups, claiming that they do not exist here. They probably don't, around the court house, but there certainly are a few out in the Whetstone mountains, as every cattle man in that district has suffered from their raids on the young calves.

Recently a Mexican trapper down the creek trapped a hairless coyote, one of the most peculiar looking things ever seen. Not long before that he trapped one with the head brand and ear mark, belonging to the Empire Land & Cattle Company, evidently having been caught by the cowboys some time or other. Here was a good chance for Inspector McDonald.

Speaking about heaven and hell with the learned Mr. W. E. Moore, a few days ago, we were informed that good people are found in both places. It seems that through the overights, on the part of train dispatchers on different occasions, several good people were sent to the latter port. Good people that can't afford tickets, need not worry about getting there however, and as he says he has no fear of lacking company at either place, we're willing to take chances.

JOE BUSH

Claims Allowed By the Supervisors

The claims allowed by the board of supervisors at their recent meeting for the month totaled $9,657.79. Of this amount $3,111 was allowed out of the salary fund; $5,997.96 out of the general fund; $1,488.83 out of the road fund, and $70 out of the interest redemption fund. The expense of the board of supervisors was $1,106; county hospital, $861.35; bounty on wild animals, $668.25; Hanson Garden compromise, $1,500; health department, $475.25; sheriff's office and jail, $882.01; district court, $150; district attorney's office, $300; treasurer's office, $419; recorder, $225; probate court, $267; assessor, $200; justice courts, $608.89. Out of the road funds Bisbee paid out $1,440.18; Hereford, $14 and Paradise $5.65.

Rebll Against Discrimination

All Arizona is in rebellion, it appears against the injustice of railroad rates which discriminate against her cities, and active steps are being taken in a number of cities of the territory to bring about a correction of the wrongs.

That something is radically wrong in the matter of freight rates is shown by a statement of facts recently presented the Maricopa County Commercial Club by F. A. Jones, manager of their freight bureau. The rates he quotes practically apply to Cochise county. For instance, he submitted: Sheeting and mullin from New York to Los Angeles, $1.35; to Phoenix, $2.37.

Cotton blankets from New York to Los Angeles, $1.75; to Phoenix, $3.79.

Farm implements from Moline, Ill. to Los Angeles, $1.20; to Phoenix, $2.05.

Canned corn from Eureka, Ill. to Los Angeles, 90 cents; to Phoenix, $2.04.

Clothing from San Francisco to New York, $2; to Phoenix, $2.24.

Overalls from San Francisco to Africa, $2.91; to Phoenix, $1.94.

Six Million Boxes a Year.

In 1895, none; in 1900, 6,000,000 boxes; that's Casarets Candy Cathartic's jump into popularity. The people have cast their verdict. Best medicine for the bowels in the world. All Druggists, 10c.

From Thursday's Daily

The district and U. S. courts are at recess until the 27th inst. when the courts will be in session again for one day. The next regular term begins on the first Monday in April.

Judge Don is at present in Phoenix in attendance on the meeting of the Shriners. He was accompanied by Mrs. Don and his niece, Miss Wilson.

Three prizes are to be given at the Red Men's masquerade ball tomorrow night. First prize to the best dressed lady; second prize to the best dressed gentleman; and third prize to least-ordered character. Much interest is centered on the event and a large attendance is expected. The Fort Huachuca band will furnish the dance music.

Ed Scott was in the city today on a short visit, stopping over on his way to Guaymas.

Tom Allaire and wife of Wilcox are in the city on a visit to friends.

Deputy Sheriff Bright of Glendon was in the city yesterday on official business.

Clark Geo B Wilcox has returned to Phoenix, where he goes to look after his orchard interests in that valley.

Mrs. F. W. Shelley is seriously ill at her home on Touhgan street, suffering from an attack of typhoid fever.

Mayor Wentworth has gone to Phoenix to attend the Shriner's convalescence.

Treasurer J. N. Gaines is improving rapidly from his siege of illness, and was able today to greet his visitors while comfortably seated in a large arm chair. He hopes to be about again shortly.

Wm Stone of Douglas has brought suit in the district court against the E. P. & S. W. for damages in the sum of $270, for loss of horse and log.

Patsy O'Toole of Douglas has been adjudged insane in Judge Goodbody's court and ordered committed to the asylum. The unfortunate man imagines some one is trying to kill him.

Armin Stock Co. At The Schieffelin

There was another large audience at the Schieffelin last night to witness the closing production of the Armin Stock company called "At Cosy Corners," but that was probably a misnomer—however, "what's in a name, anyway." To the average theatre-goer the play might not appeal, but to the people who have seen the theatre world and theatre life in the metropolitan cities and more especially its relation to the stage door, and the vulgar rich and scheming degenerates, the play last night was especially pleasing and furnished a wholesome moral lesson. It is essentially a "one part" play, and that one part was superbly done by Miss Caroline Lawrence. Those who were "wise" to the work of Miss Lawrence, to what was demanded of her, and enthusiastic in praise of her efforts—and those who looked at her work as depicting the "true to life" role of a chorus girl, paid her the pretty compliment of saying, "well done," which only emphasizes a meritorious endorsement art. The engagement here on the whole was artistically successful as well as financially, and the company will regard in Tombstone.

In the supreme court of Texas two important damage cases were decided against the E. P. & S. W. Judgment was affirmed in the case of Mrs. Kate Murtie vs E. P. & S. W. wherein Mrs. Murtie was awarded $15,000 damages for the death of her husband who was killed by a switch engine. The deceased was a well-known railroad man located at El Paso but had many friends in Arizona and Cochise county the particulars of his tragic death at the time being familiar to our readers.

Another damage case against the road, arising out of the same accident in which Murtie met his death was also affirmed, being the case of Polk vs E. P. & S. W. in which the plaintiff was awarded a verdict of $2000.

The total damages against the company in the two cases amount to $17,000.

AN AGREEMENT that railroad throughout the United States will reduce wages on March 1 will be resisted by the various unions and big strikes are looked for.

THE MAN WHO SWEARS BY THE FISH BRAND SLICKER

It is the man who has tried to get the same service out of some other make

THE FISH BRAND

Clean, Light, Durable Guaranteed Waterproof and Sold Everywhere $3.00

for workingmen

Levi Strauss & Co's

Overalls

Selected denim the two horse brand

Sheriff James Lowry of Yavapai county has announced himself as a candidate for re-election. Lowry has made an exceptionally good officer and will make a strong race, according to Yavapai papers.