FISHING NOW.

You can have more solid sport out of 25c or 50c worth of fishing tackle than any similar amount invested in any line of sport. April starts the fishing in the Salt and Gila rivers. A few Colorado river salmon have been caught, and good catches have been made on catfish, carp, suckers and Verde trout. The water is clean and all the fish are good eating now. Our stock of poles, rods, lines, reels and hooks is complete, with two large shipments now due to arrive any day. We are headquarters on these goods.

Take a gun along and kill some doves. We give a box of shells for the first white wing brought in to the store. It has not been brought in yet, although several have been seen.

THE FIRST PICNIC OF OLD SETTLERS SOCIETY

Was Voted a Most Enjoyable Day. Speeches, Stories and Big Dinner.

The first Old Settlers picnic in Arizona was held yesterday at the camp meeting grounds at the end of the Brill car line.

The conditions and scanty development are seemingly insurmountable difficulties which the first inhabitants encountered in home-making and community building.

The dinner was spread under the open air pavilion upon tables provided for that purpose.

The crowd then assembled under the pavilion to listen to the addresses. The program was introduced by singing the favorite song for this character of meeting.

And should they ever chance to meet Some real ships in battle. Why Henry says our poor old fleet Would run like frightened cattle.

AND WE THOUGHT WE HAD A NAVY. "Our battleships are out of date," Says Mr. Henry Reuterlah!

Their armor is too light and low. The targets are traps only. Some day they'll all to fragments blow And leave us sad and lonely.

But say, Hen, what strange cause took hence That erstwhile Spanish nation? Was it the hand of Providence, Or was it gravitation?

O Henry, go and soak your head, And then go buy a book Entitled "U. S. History," And o'er its glorious pages look.

But even Henry Reuterlah! Would be entirely satisfied, And others just as critical, With milk and cream from the Valley Pride.

Col. McClintock, who came here in 1879, was the next speaker. He said the early settlers were men who went out into the arid desert with eyes of faith and won a great battle in conquering the forces of nature.

room, a long line of coats where he was told he might find his brother. He went along and lifted each sheet to see which one was his brother.

Judge Pinney made the closing address, one happily appropriate to the occasion and much enjoyed by all.

Before closing the afternoon program, a resolution was offered thanking the Methodist church which had granted the privilege of the grounds.
