reported very numerous.

Fishing is receiving considerable attention these days. A party of four enthusiasts leave this evening for the Arizona dam by automobile, fully equipped for catching their share of the fish. Wherever there are deep holes in the Salt, Gila or Santa Cruz, the fishing is good, and in Salt river particularly good; there are many of these places between Tempe and the Buckeye dam; the enthusiastic fishers when they find these places, do not seem overly anxious to tell the location. Several large Colorado river salmon have been caught, and a great many medium sized ones weighing perhaps two pounds; the smaller fish are said to be better eating than the large. Catfish, carp, suckers, Verde trout, etc., are biting freely. The water being clean and cool, the fish are in good condition.

Budweiser

DIRECT into your home it comes—a square and honest product—foaming, sparkling and alive with the true re-creative energy and filled with the power of both sun and soil.

“Budweiser” flowing melodiously from the bottle is a wondrous, pleasant drink. How delightful—the penetrating odor of hop gardens—the subtle fragrance and charm of barley fields in harvest time.

AMERICA has furnished to the world the most conspicuous Apostle of Personal Liberty that ever lived.

The Declaration of Independence (the creation of his genius) is an eternal monument to his fame—more enduring than statues of marble or bronze.

As a statesman in Congress he advocated the brewing industry as an aid to agriculture and rational temperance; and upon several occasions he bought and freighted rum, wine and whiskey to the brave soldiers of the Revolution. He himself declared that the juice of the malt was never absent from his board.

Thomas Jefferson was a splendid athlete, a crack shot; and in his prime at the old Raleigh tavern he delighted to enjoy his “cakes and ale” or dance half through the night with the fair maids of old Virginia.

At eighty-three he died, regretted by the nation he helped to create. His deeds and written thoughts absolutely and irrefutably prove that good malt beer is not injurious to mind or body.

FINANCIAL CATASTROPHE IS NOT IMPENDING

Mayor Coggins Shows How a Deficit Would Be Avoided.

A circular issued by Mayor Coggins made its appearance yesterday. It was in reply to a financial statement made in relation to the closing of the saloons in which it was shown that the city would be deprived of about $20,000 revenue in the event of the carrying of local option.

In the circular the mayor recalls the predictions of financial ruin in the event of the abolition of gambling and he takes the ground that the present fears of bankruptcy are as groundless as the fears then were. He says:

“I therefore address you, the business men and voters of Phoenix and vicinity, to refute the misleading statements now being circulated, that the city of Phoenix cannot run without the saloon license. Since our ‘dusty’ times of a year and a half ago, when the saloon license was raised to produce revenue, we have acquired a valuable asset in the form of municipal water works, from which we derive a sufficient revenue to offset the money received from saloon licenses. We can run the city on water, instead of whiskey, and while our citizens will pay no increase in your water rates, you will still be paying a half million dollars into the coffers of the saloon by voting to close them.

“We can run this city the coming year without increasing indebtedness one cent; and without increasing your water rents one cent, all without the saloon or its license money.

“There’s no question about the country being vastly benefited financially by closing the saloons.

“The question with me is not ‘to what extent have the saloons or liquor interests been able to violate the laws of the state of Maine or Kansas?’ but rather ‘Shall we close the saloons in Maricopa county, and see that the liquor interests obey the law which we shall adopt?’

“Now, if this financial talk which the saloons are giving you is the same old bluff which has proven false before, and you believe we can run our city without their revenue, then I ask you, does the moral question enter into this election?”

“It certainly does. Mr. Voter, it is a question of right or wrong, not finance; don’t be fooled into voting for what you know is wrong. You can vote to close the saloons and not be the loser one cent. The question and the only question before you is—Do you want the saloons closed or do you not? If you do, then vote to close them.”

WHITING SEASON IS SETTING IN EARLY

The Doves Are Already on the Desert in Large Numbers.

The boys who hunt, and have had their guns laid away for the past two months, since the quail season closed, are now polishing them up and getting ready for the biggest summer season on doves and whitewings on record. Hunters who have been out the past week, and there have been a great many reports that they never seen so many doves as are here now, and nearly all the birds killed have been squabs; out of 85 birds two hunters got Thursday, there were two old doves, the balance being fat young squabs. They are feeding now on small black seed on the desert, and on wheat.

California only has a short open season on doves, with a limit of 25 birds per day per man, and that limit is seldom reached by the best shots on account of the scarcity of the birds. The writer saw more doves in one day this week on a five-acre wheat field within six miles of Phoenix than he saw in a dozen or more hunting trips for doves in California.

All the sports who have been out the past week have killed or seen a few whitewings close to town, which is very unusual for this time of year. South of Tempe, and along the Gila river, and Salt river near the junction, whitewings are quite plentiful; one hunter brought in eighteen a week ago.

Fish and Game Commissioner Pinney has recently been examining the sloughs along the Gila and Santa Cruz rivers southwest of town, taking temperature of water, depth, character of bottom, and samples of water for analysis, with the view of stocking some of the sloughs with a better grade of fish next fall.

Cinnamon teal and grey ducks are still in the country, and are in fine condition. Hunters who have been along the rivers and sloughs the past two weeks have brought in from six to a dozen ducks apiece. The middle of May usually sees their finish.

Young rabbits are now large enough to be fine eating, and cottontails are reported very numerous.

Fishing is receiving considerable attention these days. A party of four enthusiasts left this evening for the Arizona dam by automobile, fully equipped for catching their share of the fish. Wherever there are deep holes in the Salt, Gila or Santa Cruz, the fishing is good, and in Salt river particularly good, there are many of these places between Tempe and the Buckeye dam; the enthusiastic fishers when they find these places do not seem overly anxious to tell the location. Several large colored river salmon have been caught, and a great many medium sized ones weighing perhaps two pounds; the smaller fish are said to be better eating than the large. Catfish, carp, suckers, Verde trout, etc., are biting freely. The water being clean and cool, the fish are in good condition.

who is in distressing circumstances, as shall be here set forth, and whose address will be furnished to any interested person who will apply at this office with a view of rendering her assistance.

She has three children and has received no assistance in their support from their father for the last five years. The mother is not now in good health and finds it impossible to provide for herself and all her little ones. She would like to place the two younger children, a girl of 11 and a boy of 6, in good homes where they will be kindly cared for until her health improves and she can get a little start in life, when she hopes to be able to pay for their board. The mother feels that she is now able to work, however, an can do so as soon as she can get her little ones provided for.

The case is referred to those charitably disposed persons who are in a position to offer homes for these children, and as mentioned above, the name and address can be secured at The Republican office.

AMUSEMENTS

ARIZONA SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

Mrs. Amalia Schmidt Gobble sang three beautiful numbers, her high, clear tones and perfect enunciation being noticeable with every note. “All Love, but a Day,” was followed by “A Madrigal” and “The Hills o’ Ives.” The last two songs are by Victor Harris and enabled Mrs. Gobble to score a big hit. She responded to demands for an encore with the wonderful man love song, “Ich Liebe Dich,” and again held the audience responsive to the spell of her music.—Davenport Times.

Mrs. Gobble is to give her song recital here Tuesday evening, May 5, at the School of Music. She will be assisted by Mrs. May French Cooley. Tickets, 50 cents, are on sale at the Adams pharmacy. No reserved seats.
